Tour Guide / Host

Description

Short Path Distillery is seeking a professional, outgoing, hospitality-driven individual to join our team as Tour Guide / Host. Tours will be offered to guests of our cocktail bar on Saturdays at 2pm and 4pm. The ideal candidate for this position has a genuine interest in distilling/spirits, excellent communication skills, are energetic, timely, and well-organized.

Occasionally the Tour Guide will assist in hosting the retail section of our store.

Tour Guides / Hosts are trained and expected to be knowledgeable in our production methods, company history, and spirits.

Saturday availability is a must.

About Us

Founded by three friends connected by a deeply shared passion for spirits, Short Path Distillery specializes in creating a variety of distinct and flavorful craft spirits. By combining old world distilling techniques with a new world, science-based approach to spirit development, we're able to create unique spirits that break the mold without reinventing the wheel.

Cocktail Bar

The cocktail bar at Short Path Distillery is an extension of our production facility from which we serve our house-made craft cocktails. We pride ourselves on creating exceptional cocktails made with fresh ingredients that appeal to all audiences. From hand-juiced citrus to freshly made syrups, our team excels at creating delicious drinks that show off our unique 20+ spirits.

Retail

We also operate a retail store from which folks can shop around and purchase spirits, bottled cocktails, apparel, glassware, and more.

Wholesale

In addition, our spirits can be found at 200+ stores, restaurants, and bars throughout Massachusetts and Maine. We're also in the midst of implementing an expansion plan to grow our distribution outside of these states and into new select targeted markets.

Responsibilities

- Set up, maintain, and clean tour space area
- Greet ticket holders
- Encourage bar patrons to purchase tickets to upcoming tour sessions
- Comfortably present tour script to large groups of visitors
- Answer guest questions
- Pour spirit samples and cocktails
- Perform sales transactions as needed (operate POS system)
